

JAMAL H. KASO,
Plaintiff,

v.

CAROLYN W. COLVIN,
Acting Commissioner, Social Security Administration, Defendant.

The Application represents that the Plaintiff is currently not working. However, the Application reports that the Plaintiff receives $702 a month for disability and receives public assistance of $171 per month. Further, the Application states that the Plaintiff has a checking account at PNC Bank that has a balance of $3,350 in the account. Furthermore, the Application represents that the Plaintiff does not have any assets of any value. Moreover, regarding the Plaintiff's monthly expenses; such as, shelter, utilities, food, clothing, medical and transportation, the Application shows that Plaintiff has monthly expenses in the amount of $870.

The Court has reviewed the Application and based upon the foregoing representations, the Court finds that the Plaintiff does have sufficient resources from which to pay the $400.00 filing fee associated with bringing this action. Hence, Plaintiff's Application To Proceed Without Prepayment of Fees And Affidavit is denied.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED:

1. That the Plaintiff's Application to Proceed Without Prepayment Of Fees is DENIED.
2. That within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order, the Plaintiff shall remit the filing fee of $400.00. Failure to comply with the instant directive could result in the summary dismissal of the Plaintiff's case.
